Game description.

Attention! Attention!

Our civilization is in danger! Treacherous aliens try to damage our green planet with nuclear wastes. To do this they have built an underground construction where they manufacture the nuclear poison for humans! Who is able to help us to save the ancient civilization?

Within short terms the artificial robot was created in secret laboratories to struggle with the aliens. But who is ready to control this robot? Who will be responsible for our future? So, you are to do that. The future of all humans is in your hands! We all hope that you will save us and become a hero! Good luck! You will need it!!!
